If registering on first day of camp, payment MUST be made in the form of cash, credit card, or money order. No personal checks accepted. Indicated grades are for the 2008-2009 School Year. Notice of withdrawal or cancellation must be received within 2 business days before class or camp. Students will be notified of class cancellations. All sports camp fees include a T-shirt and camp insurance. Registration is on a first-come, first serve basis. These summer programs comply with GHSA Board policy. Participation is voluntary and has no bearing on high school interscholastic teams.

CAMP and CLASS HIGHLIGHTS

AFRICAN CULTURAL DANCING: Introduction to the authentic styles of West African and Afro-Caribbean dance forms. Promotes physical fitness and encourages artistic expression through dance and music. Recommended attire: Women –lapa or wrap-around skirt over shorts, T-shirt, bare feet. Men – sweat pants or shorts, T-shirt, bare feet.

CHESS: For all levels. Beginners learn how to play and win “pre-chess” games. Intermediate/Advance players work to improve chess skills through opening, middle, and end game strategies. Players participate in consultation games, training simulations, and puzzle competitions.

LEADERSHIP and CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT: Covers close order drill, general military subjects, leadership traits and principles, time management, goal setting, and personal training. Daily lunch provided.

SOCIAL DANCE: Covers the basic steps of Foxtrot, Waltz, Cha-Cha, Swing, Shag, Salsa, Rumba, Mamba, Tango, Meringue, and Electric Slide.

UNDERSTANDING THE HOLOCAUST: Examines the cause, actions, and aftermath of genocide in today’s world. Note: Due to the graphic nature of some of the visual aids, this class is restricted to ages 16 and older.

WRITING CAMPS: 4 different camps offering unique ways to approach a writing genre. Instructors are veteran teachers that are teacher-consultants for the Kennesaw Mountain Writing Project, a site of the National Writing Project.

YOGALATES: Blending of yoga and Pilates. Focus on core stability while elongating the body by developing lean muscles.
